

HELPING HAND—Officer Tom Woodridge, trustee, and Charlene Alarcon, secretary of Torrance Police Officers' Association, give check for $50 to Joe L. Clements, manager of South Torrance Junior Legion baseball team. Although franchise has been granted by the American Legion, the organizers must provide the money. The team, comprising 16 boys, will play in Torrance City Park. Boys are from South High and Bishop Montgomery High. More sponsors needed.

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, Mayor Isen, and Walter Nollac, city engineer, gather in advertising offices at open house.

Smog Program Effective in July

The new state smog-control program, as finally enacted by the legislature, will become effective in mid-July, 90 days after receiving the Governor's signature of approval.

At that time machinery will be set in motion for the testing of motor vehicle contaminant control devices which, upon being certified, will ultimately be required on all new cars sold in California.

Warns Against Danger of Ill-Fitting Frames

According to vision authorities, poorly adjusted glasses frames may cause eyestrain and headaches, especially when eyes are used for close work. Ordinary wear or an almost unnoticed blow can twist frames so that even a perfect lens correction cannot provide strain-free vision.

Dr. J. M. Soss, optometrist in the Harbor area for 32 years, invites glasses wearers to drop in at his ground floor offices at 1268 Sartori Ave. and let an experienced optometrist straighten their

Taxicab Fare Boost OK'd by City Councilmen

The City Council has approved a boost in fares for all cab companies operating in the city.

The fares have been increased from 50 cents the first half-mile to the same amount for the first quarter. Remainder of the fare structure remains the same.

The action brought the Torrance cabs into line with those of neighboring cities.

Plans OK'd for Work on Hawthorne Blvd.

Final plans and specifications for improvement of Hawthorne Blvd. in the Palos Verdes area were approved today by the Board of Supervisors.

Bids for the contract will be opened May 10, work to be completed next March.

DAN HUTCHINSON

Moose Governor Names Leaders of Committees

Dan Hutchinson, governor-elect of the Torrance Moose lodge, has announced appointment of Charles Ross Britt Jr. as chairman of the civic-affairs committee and a full slate of other committee chairmanships.

Joe Marley will be chairman of the ways and means committee. Marley is completing a term as junior governor.

Officers and other committee chairmen are: George Snyder, steward; James H. Johnston, secretary; Hank Kolter, entertainment; George Clay, membership; Douglas Dixon, ritual; Joseph Platt, publicity; Victor Habib, inner guard; Bob Stewart, outer guard; Fred Eakins, sergeant-at-arms; and Melvin Coates, assistant sergeant-at-arms.

The officers will be installed in public ceremonies at the lodge hall Saturday, April 30.

Tot Drinks Thinner

Deborah Hytes, 15 months old, drank paint thinner this week and survived. Her mother, Dorothy, rushed her to Harbor Hospital. The family lives at 16914 Purche Ave.

Crowds Turn Out at Press Open House

Crowds of Torrance residents, city officials, businessmen, and many from out of town responded to The Press's open-house invitation Thursday night.

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, a special guest, warmly congratulated William R. Zappas, publisher, on the strides The Press is making in expansion of circulation, news coverage, public service, and advertising.

Refreshments were served to visitors, who inspected the new advertising, editorial, business, and mechanical departments.

Among city officials attending, many with their wives and family members, were Mayor and Mrs. Isen, Councilmen J. A. Beasley, Nicholas O. Dralle, Police Chief Percy G. Bennett, Planning Director George Powell, Public Works Director Wade Peebles, City Manager George Stevens, Building Superintendent Lee Schlens, Bus Superintendent Marshall Chamberlain, and Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of schools.

Businessmen and merchants arrived individually, and members of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors and Torrance Democrats Inc. turned out in groups.

Mrs. Godfrey Nelson, press chairman of the Torrance Woman's Club headed visitors from the Torrance woman's world.

J. H. Paget, Chamber of Commerce president; Dick Fitzgerald, chamber manager; and Abe Robinson, chairman of the Downtown Merchants' Association attended. Zappas told the visitors of the expansion plans for The Press and conducted tours, along with William E. King, general manager, Lee Wood (Miss Torrance Press), and Mike Callas and Jay Delaney, advertising-department heads.

Bradford Hits Slow Hiring

The Civil Service Commission has been told to speed up processing and acquisition of applicants for jobs here.

Councilman George Bradford complained it took a year to come up with an eligible list for a blacksmith-welder.

CHESS DAY TOMORROW

A chess tournament among youngsters in the El Retiro Park area has been scheduled for 4:30 p.m. tomorrow at the play area, according to the Torrance Recreation Department.

Awards will be given to winners and runners-up.

HERE'S HOW—Lee Wood, Miss Torrance Press, shows Jack O'Donnell of Santa Monica

how engraver makes cuts that reproduce the photos in expanding issues of The Press.
